

Name boards were prepared by botany students for naming of trees in the college campus

