

COMMERCE ASSOCIATION REPORT 2025

The Commerce Association, a beacon of academic distinction, creative ingenuity, and holistic development, embarked on a momentous journey in 2025. This report encapsulates the pivotal events and milestones that characterized the year with fervor, enlightenment, and jubilation.

Inauguration Ceremony

The Commerce Association inaugurated its annual proceedings with grandeur on December 30, 2025. The event was honored by the esteemed presence of C.A.K. Hariharan, Chartered Accountant and Founder of Premier Academy, who presided as the Chief Guest.

In his keynote address, Mr. Hariharan delivered an erudite and thought-provoking discourse. He underscored the indispensability of specialized professional courses in equipping individuals to navigate and excel in today's fiercely competitive professional arena. His speech resonated profoundly with the audience as he proffered pragmatic insights on cultivating focus in the workplace and achieving an equitable work-life balance.

The inauguration served as an inspiring prologue to the array of meticulously curated events and activities, galvanizing students and association members alike.

Cultural Events

The Commerce Association orchestrated a resplendent three-day cultural festival, a confluence of talent, innovation, and camaraderie, which served as a testament to the students' multifaceted capabilities.

Day 1: January 6, 2025 – Off-Stage Events

The festival commenced with a series of intellectually stimulating off-stage competitions, providing an exceptional platform for participants to demonstrate their strategic acumen and creative flair. Highlights of the day included:

ADZAP: A challenge that required participants to ideate and execute innovative solution with precision.

BUSINESS PLAN: An exhibition of entrepreneurial prowess, with participants presenting meticulously structured business models.

TRIPLE TRIVIA: A collaborative variant of the fun yet educating games, encouraging teamwork and dynamic ideation.

MEHNDI: A good old traditional art of mehndi art depicting current socially criticized topics.

COOKING WITHOUT FIRE: A culinary showcase - that celebrated ingenuity and resourcefulness under the constraint of avoiding fire.

These events underscored the participants' analytical, collaborative, and inventive capabilities, setting a high standard for the ensuing days.

Day 2: January 8, 2025 – Dance and Pageantry

The second day was a vibrant display of elegance and dynamism, captivating audiences with the following highlights:

Twirl and Whirl: A riveting dance competition that celebrated the art of movement. Participants exhibited exemplary talent, seamlessly blending traditional and contemporary styles to create spellbinding performances.

Commerce Belle: A pageantry event themed Miss Commerce, where contestants exuded charisma, confidence, and intellect. The competition celebrated both individual brilliance and an astute understanding of commerce-related themes, encapsulating grace and substance.

The day concluded on a celebratory note, leaving an indelible impression on both spectators and participants.

Day 3: January 9, 2025 – Music and Artistry:

The final day of the cultural festival culminated in a magnificent celebration of auditory and visual artistry:

A CAPPELLA: This melodious competition showcased participants' vocal virtuosity, as they delivered harmonious renditions devoid of instrumental accompaniment, leaving the audience spellbound.

MIME : An evocative silent art form, where participants conveyed profound narratives through gestures, expressions, and movement. The mime performances were both poignant and captivating, resonating deeply with the audience.

The third day was a befitting conclusion to the festival, illuminating the creative brilliance and dedication of its participants.

Valedictory Function

The cultural festival culminated in a distinguished Valedictory Function, graced by Dr. B. Kannika, Retired Regional Joint Director and former faculty member of the Commerce Department.

Dr. Kannika shared her invaluable experiences in teaching, inspiring students to recognize and nurture their innate talents. Her motivational address encouraged attendees to pursue their passions with vigor and commitment.

The award ceremony followed, honoring the winners of cultural competitions. Additionally, service certificates were presented to class representatives, assistant representatives, student volunteers, and participants, acknowledging their contributions and dedication.

Sports Achievements

Adding to the department's accolades, the Department of Commerce secured the Overall Championship in the Sports Day 2025, demonstrating excellence not only in academics and cultural pursuits but also in athletics.

Reflections and Observations

The Commerce Association's 2025 activities exemplified excellence, inclusivity, and innovation, drawing together a myriad of talents. Each gathering was a model of careful planning and flawless execution, fostering enthusiasm and active participation.

The cultural festival offered a valuable platform for students to refine their skills, explore creativity, and build a sense of community. These events not only encouraged intellectual and artistic growth but also instilled values of teamwork, resilience, and self-expression.

The association extends its sincere gratitude to all participants, organizers, and esteemed guests like C.A.K. Hariharan and Dr. B. Kannika, whose presence and insights enriched the experience. The year 2025 has solidified the Commerce Association's role as a nurturing hub for excellence and a vibrant community for holistic growth.
